

Welcome to Vivente Music

Vivente Music aspires to promote local talent through chamber music concerts and solo recitals in and around Adelaide. In addition we offer a service for the placement of classical instrumentalists, singers and ensembles for various corporate and private functions.

We pride ourselves on our mission to provide our public and clients with high quality professional music performances and expertise.